

COPY RIGHT FORM

The copy right licence of the accepted manuscript is transferred to South Indian Journal of Biological Science (SIBS), after the manuscript is accepted in the South Indian Journal of Biological Science. It covers the entire right to reprints, online publication and distribution of the manuscript. The authors confirm that the manuscripts are their own original research work which should or will not be published elsewhere. The contributing authors are given equal importance in the manuscript and all the co-authors were read and approved the final manuscript. The authors warrant that they do not have any conflicting interest in the publications and grant numbers of the financial support of the research work are mention in the manuscript. The authors may upload the accepted manuscript is his/her personnel home page after acceptance of the manuscript. The corresponding author confirms to provide present, correct email address and contact details. The submission of the copy right information, changes in the author's name will not be accepted.

Yours sincerely

Corresponding author name :
Address :
Date :
Signature :